

Mandate for welding supervision

According to our unique Q7 concept in phase 2, manufacturing, apart from manufacturing supervision we also offer various mandates during the production process in your company.

Please enquire with us for the following mandates and tasks

- Responsible welding supervisor for execution of the EN 1090, part 2 and 3 guideline production of steel-/aluminium structures
- Factory-owned manufacturing control-responsible person in conjunction with a welding supervision mandate
- Welding supervision responsible person for execution of EN 15085 (Production of railway vehicles)
- NDT-Testing supervision and execution of NDT-tests before, during and after production
- Approval of components with subsuppliers
- Monitoring of qualifications of welders and manufacturers
- Establishment of all necessary documentation for production, like e.g. welding instructions, test plans, performance explanations etc.

Take benefit from more than 15 years of experience in welding supervision.

Our Staff Qualifications ^{m/f/d}

- International welding engineers (IWE)
- International welding technicians (IWT)
- International welding specialists (IWS)
- NDT-inspectors for the following procedures in stages 2 and 3.
 - visual testing (VT)
 - penetration testing (PT)
 - magnetic particle testing (MT)
 - ultrasonic testing (UT)
- Coating experts